Regulate the Removal of Poor Persons to Ireland.

A.D. 1882.

WHEREAS the laws which enable poor persons to be removed from England and Scotland to Ireland inflict hardship; it is expedient these laws should be amended:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any justice or justices of the peace in England or Wales, or any sheriff or justice or justices of the peace in Scotland, to remove or convey or cause to be removed or conveyed to Ireland any poor person from any parish, combination of parishes, or union in England, Wales, or Scotland to which the said poor person may have become chargeable by reason of relief given, provided the said poor person had resided in England, Wales, or Scotland for three years before becoming chargeable.
